

Public information meetings

Construction projects—like the US 41 Project in northeast Wisconsin—bring many unique challenges to a community. That's why keeping the public informed about the US 41 Project is important to WisDOT (Wisconsin Department of Transportation). Over the course of construction, WisDOT will host public information meetings to address questions and concerns in Brown and Winnebago counties.